

West Moors: Today ... and Yesteryear

Early 20th century Station Road

Early years: Moorland Road

St. Mary's school 1900s

Station between the Wars

Do you want to know a little more about West Moors?

Our history? Our environment?

Have a look at the Town Council web site and see the various documents, leaflets etc., that are hosted there: find out about the community around you - both today and in the past. There's more to us than you might think!

Village Trail

A look at the 'built' environment across West Moors - with some historic notes.

The 'Trail' is split into two sections ...

Part I: along Station Road ... from the Uddens in the south, through the centre of West Moors, past the Memorial Hall and on to the north of the Fuel Depot.

Part II: along Pinehurst Road ... from its junction with Station Road to the Ringwood Road / A31.

Nature Trail

And to complement the above - a description of the natural world across the community with some history & links to useful sites of further information.

Walks and open spaces

A shorter file, which looks at areas of recreation suitable for walking or other similar activities.

[Riverside Walk .. Castleman Trailway .. Forestry Plantation .. Woolslope Recreation Area .. The Petwyn]

West Moors History

Read a little about our history - with photographs that we have available to illustrate the story.

World War I Centenary Project

An analysis by Pete Holden looking at the residents of West Moors caught up in the Great War.

Remembrance in West Moors

A short note describing the story surrounding the village War Memorial.

Our Churches history

A small booklet detailing the history of the churches in our midst.

Our Railway history

A small booklet detailing the history of the railway that once served the area.

Railway anniversaries

1847 and 1867 ... two notable dates in the railway history - read on!

West Moors Parish Plan

Although this document was issued back in 2007, it is still relevant with much useful information.

Find the Town Council web site at:-

westmoors-tc.gov.uk